Dear Mr. Williams,

Today I received your two mailings of the 23rd, the letter and the envelope with the Houts chapter and the Ture story, both of which I welcome and will read tomorrow.

Yesterday I blacked out for a while. Medical examination today disclosed nothing, but I have to slow down a bit, so this is but hasty acknowledgement and thanks.

You seem to know much about Haylift. Does your knowledge include the name Drury?

How close your thinking is to mine! You call the WR the American Dreyfus case. I almost subtitled WHITEWASH "The Dead Dreyfus" and several times, in writing, I have so designated Oswald.

I haven't read "The Country Team". I have "Green Berets". We also did one on the anti-Castros, "The Devil to Pay", which I do have.

Sorry about the haste. Your kindnesses deserve better.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
